Hotel & Travel Information

Students & Professors:

We are so pleased to welcome you to the 8th Annual National Student Show & Conference! We want to make your stay here as fun and worry-free as we can. This document should help you plan your stay in Dallas.

This year's conference will be held at the Radisson Hotel on the northbound access road to Highway 75 (N Central Expressway) just north of Mockingbird Ln. The hotel is being renovated this spring, so there are no rooms available. But don't worry! The Radisson is walking distance to the DART light rail hub, Mockingbird Station. Because of parking limitations, we are recommending that students stay at a hotel along the DART line and take the train to the conference each day. DART tickets are $1.75 for a single 90-minute pass, or $4.00 for a day pass. Students who sign up for the studio tours will be given a day pass for Thursday. To accommodate travel, the conference will begin a bit later each morning.

On the following page, we've listed recommended hotels for each railway stop. Stops north of Mockingbird Station have large free parking lots and are a very short drive from the recommended hotels. Stops south of Mockingbird (Downtown) are a 5-10 minute walk from the recommended hotels. Of course, the further you are from Mockingbird Station, the longer your commute will be. However DART trains are pretty quick and run frequently in the morning. You can get a DART schedule at dart.org and estimate your commute.

If you're flying into DFW Airport, you can take the TRE train which connects to the DART light rail. More information on a TRE connection can be found here.
